

Centre for Perioperative Care (CPOC) – Fellow Person Specification

Educational Requirements/Qualifications
Full registration with the appropriate professional regulator (without restrictions or warnings)
This role is intended for all medical doctors and registered healthcare professionals who are undertaking or have achieved a higher postgraduate academic qualification, such as a FRCA, Masters or Diploma in Clinical Practice.
Currently working in a perioperative discipline undertaking a patient facing clinical role
Experience
Experience and evidence of publication of academic outputs (Essential)
Evidence of presentations at regional/ national/international meetings (Essential)
Track record of professional achievements (Essential)
Experience of delivering complex change projects on time and to budget (Desirable)
Skills and Knowledge
Understanding of the national NHS context and policy issues for the development and delivery of UK perioperative care
Acquainted with DoH and NHSE (+ devolved nations) management and funding structures and knowledge of how to promote change within this context
Broad understanding of the work and strategic direction of CPOC
Ability to work alongside elected trainee Council/Board Members to represent the trainee voice at CPOC meetings and to forge and maintain links with trainee networks
Ability to engage in consultative work with external stakeholders and present to people of all levels
Excellent written and verbal communication skills
Ability to critically appraise clinical and statistical evidence
Passion for perioperative medicine and improving patient experience and outcomes
Personal Attributes
Ability to work flexibly (with approval of local support) and independently under pressure and within appropriate deadlines
Able to work independently on long term high value projects
Approachable, friendly manner, evidence of team working or leadership roles

Excellent interpersonal skills in dealing with professionals and clinicians, other healthcare workers, managers, CPOC staff and patient and public representatives

Hardworking, punctual, conscientious and thorough

Ability to respond to changing agendas and priorities

Comfortable with dealing with complex issues and direction setting

Good IT skills and use of virtual platforms such as MS TEAMS

Organisational Commitment

Must have support of employing Trust/Health Board

Must be able to commit to travel if based outside London

Must be able to have some flexibility of timetabling to allow availability for CPOC activities, including a weekly CPOC meeting held on Tuesday afternoons